STAR FLEET UNIVERSE

Die Cut the Virus!

Things are moving forward with lots of new products getting done despite the COVID-19 virus and the die cutter we have for years going out of business. Rebuilding the market after years of very few new products has been a challenge we were only happy to meet and overcome.

The markets are evolving. Online discounters have forced half or more of the local game stores out of business, and the wholesalers who could have stopped that disaster not only watched it happen but helped it happen. With fewer game stores to serve, most of the wholesalers we are used for two decades have closed up shop. But that store closed just as the PDF store and Shapeways doors flew wide open.

The future looks very exciting.
