ZZZ-Notes
ZZZ-Notes: Your help is welcome in correcting and improving this index, but you can avoid wasting your time by considering these comments. We want to provide a functional source of information, not a perfectly edited work of literature. I would rather post this index with a few formatting errors that do not reduce its utility than spend days editing it (e.g., to change commas to semicolons and capitalize “rule”) instead of working on new products. I’d rather list something twice than made it hard to find, so I don’t need to delete duplicates unless they are exactly the same.
Sometimes I use commas, periods, or semi-colons; as long as all of a given type of entry (e.g., “Why”) is the same, I don’t care if why and background are not the same. If you see something that would amount to a “consistent fix” (i.e., 37 line items all saying to Change a comma to a semi-colon) then send ONE line item and not 37 (and forgive me if I ignore it).
Don’t do Captain’s Log issues not on the list as I want do them myself. If you see some category of thing that I normally double-list or triple-list (the monster rules are infamous for this) and some are missing one kind of listing, don’t hesitate to tell me. While we normally italicize product names, that wasn’t done in this index because it is too much work and doesn’t really matter for this purpose.--Steve Cole
