New Game Value: Plasma torpedoes, cloaking devices, five new scenarios, master weapons chart on back cover of rulebook, sixteen new ships (including one never seen in SFB before) and the space dragon (which comes in two sizes).

This product does not require any other products for use. All other Federation Commander products will work with Romulan Border or Klingon Border.

Components: 60-page Rev-4 rulebook, 216 half-inch and 40 one-inch full color die cut playing pieces, four full-color double-sided laminated player reference cards, sixteen full color double-sided laminated ship cards, six 8.5x11 hard-mounted double-sided map panels, two dice, paperclips for energy track, wipe-off marker.

Improvements over Klingon Border: Higher-quality maps (now used in both products), real wipe-off marker, latest revision rulebook, expanded Sequence of Play.

Who will buy it? Players of SFB, ex-players of SFB, players of Federation Commander: Klingon Border, fans of Star Trek, fans of miniatures starship games.
